AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of July, 1796.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Thirteenth of January last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy

Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeiture inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Ports and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Downing-Street, July 23, 1796.

THE Letters, of which the following are Copies, have been received from the Honorable William Frederick Wyndham, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Grand Duke of Tuscany, and from Mr. Udny, His Majesty's Consul at Leghorn, by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs.

MY LORD,

Florence, June 22.

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that on the 18th Instant the French entered Bologna, to the Number of about 15,000 Men, having previously sent before them a Commissary and a Troop of Cavalry, to demand Entrance into the City, with a Promise of treating it in a friendly Manner: In consequence, being Masters of the Town and Forts, they made the Garrison Prisoners of War, and sent them under Escort into the Milanese. The Pope's Legate they immediately ordered to quit the Bologna.

On receiving this Information I immediately waited on the Prime Minister Seratti and the Marquis Manfredini, to know whether His Royal Highness had any Intelligence of an Intent of the French to march into Tuscany, or to garrison Leghorn; and I had the most positive Assurances from both, that the French had no Idea at present of entering Leghorn.

I own, my Lord, that I do not place much Confidence in their Promises of not coming to Leghorn; I have therefore thought proper to write to the Admiral my Sentiments to that Effect, requesting him to leave some Vessels at Leghorn, to carry off the Merchants and British Subjects, with their Effects, in case of a sudden Invasion. I have likewise desired the Consul to convene the British Factory, and to tell them not to rely too much on French Faith.

I have the Honor, &c.

W. F. WYNDHAM.

Florence, June 25, 1796.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the Situation of Affairs in this Country is materially changed: The Neutrality of the Grand Duke, which, from every Promise on the Part of the Directory at Paris and their Minister here, we had Reason to expect would be religiously respected, has been openly violated, by the March of a considerable Body of French Troops to Pistoia, the Destination of which I have Reason to believe, from a Variety of concurring Circumstances, to be for Leghorn; and the Republic of Lucca has given Intimation to this Government, that such is, undoubtedly, the Project of the French. The Violation of the Neutrality is so palpable, and the Measures taken by the Enemy so apparently hostile, as to make it probable that the Country will not escape Contributions. I have omitted no Means of forwarding Information almost daily to the Consul and Admiral.

I have the Honor, &c.

W. F. WYNDHAM.

Florence, June 25.

MY LORD,

I WAS this Day informed, by the Secretary of State, that a Column of French was on its March from Bologna, by the Way of Figiano and Perugia, of which he did not know the Number; that another Column, consisting of between 8 and 9,000, were to arrive this Day at Pistoia; that the Marquis Manfredini, who was dispatched by the Grand Duke to Bologna on the Instant with the strongest Remonstrances, and ordered to use his utmost Endeavours with Buonaparte and Salicetti to dissuade the French from entering Tuscany, had received for Answer, That no Orders had been given by the Directory at Paris to that Effect, and consequently it was not in their Power to do otherwise; and all that they would do, was to pass through Tuscany as speedily, friendly, and quietly as possible, and by whatever Road His Royal Highness should be pleased to dictate; but that the Commissaries and Two Generals of the Column, marching to Pistoia, being arrived there, have declared to the General Strasoldo (who was sent by the Grand Duke to meet them, and to give the necessary Orders to insure Tranquility,) that they have no Orders to receive from the Grand Duke, and do not know the Route they shall take—a Circumstance utterly impossible, as they precede the Army to obtain Provisions.

I have the Honor, &c.

W. F. WYNDHAM.

On Board His Majesty's Ship the Inconstant, Leghorn Road, June 27.

MY LORD,

IN consequence of the Intelligence which I received on the 24th Instant, from the Honorable William Frederick Wyndham, His Majesty's Minister at Florence, and from my different Emissaries on the Roads, that there was a considerable Probability that the French would enter Leghorn, I immediately called a Meeting of the Gentlemen of the Factory, and communicated to them the abovementioned Information; and if equal Attention had been paid to it by all as was done by the principal Members, the Loss would have been far less considerable. I am happy, however, to be able to inform your Lordship, that by the extraordinary Exertions which have been made, and in particular by Captain Freemantle, commanding His Majesty's Ship the Inconstant, every English Ship in the Mole, Twenty-three in Number, together with great Part of the valuable Effects in the Warehouses, and about Two Hundred and Forty Oxen for the Use of His Majesty's Fleet, have, in the Course of Two Days and Nights, been saved.

I have the Honor, &c.

JOHN UDNY.

Victory, off Toulon, July 1, 1796.

MY LORD,

HAVING seen the Factory and English Subjects, and the Convoy, with their valuable Effects, safe into Corsica, I proceeded in His Majesty's Ship Inconstant, Captain Freemantle, to receive the Commander in Chief's Instructions for my future Government in the Service of His Majesty's Fleet; and having received Sir John Jervis's Orders, I am returning immediately to Corsica, in His Majesty's Ship Inconstant, to rejoin the Factory and execute his Commands.

I am, &c.

JOHN UDNY.

Admiralty-Office, July 22, 1796.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Macbride to Mr. Nepean, dated on Board His Majesty's Ship Russell, in Yarmouth Roads, July 21, 1796.

PLEASE to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty of the Arrival of His Majesty's Ship Glatton, after having had an Action with Six French Frigates, a Brig, and Cutter, off Helvoet-Huys. Enclosed is a Letter from Captain Trollope, giving an Account of that spirited Affair; I have ordered her to the Nore to refit.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Trollope, of His Majesty's Ship the Glatton, to Vice-Admiral Macbride, commanding His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in Yarmouth-Roads, dated the 21st Instant.

IBEG Leave to inform you, that, in pursuance of your Orders, I sailed in His Majesty's Ship Glatton on the 15th of July from Yarmouth-Roads, in order to join Captain Savage and a Squadron under his Command; and on the 16th at One P. M. we observed a Squadron about Four or Five Leagues off Helvoet. Owing to light Winds and Calms it was Seven P. M. before we were near enough to discover the Squadron to consist of Six Frigates, One of which, the Commodore's Ship, appeared to mount near Fifty Guns; Two others appeared about Thirty-six Guns, remarkably fine long Frigates; and the other Three smaller, and might mount about Twenty-eight Guns each. There were also a very fine Brig and Cutter with them. We soon suspected, from their Signals and their not answering our private Signals, that they were Enemies, and immediately cleared for Action, and bore down to them. From their manœuvring it was Ten at Night before we got close alongside the third Ship in the Enemy's Line, which from her Size we supposed to be the Commodore; when, after hailing her, and finding them to be a French Squadron, I ordered him to strike his Colours, which he returned with a Broadside, and I believe was well repaid by One from the Glatton within Twenty Yards; after which the Action became general with the Enemy's Squadron, the Two Headmost of which had tacked, and One of the largest had placed herself alongside, and another on our Weather Bow, and the Sternmost had placed themselves on our Lee Quarter and Stern: In this Manner we were engaged on both Sides for a few Minutes, with our Yard-Arms nearly touching those of the Enemy on each Side; but I am happy to acquaint you that in less than Twenty Minutes the Weight of our Fire had beat them off on all Sides; but when we attempted to follow them, we, much to our Regret, found it impossible. I have no Doubt, from the apparent Confusion the Enemy were in, we should have gained a decisive Victory, but unfortunately, in attempting to wear, we found every Part of our Running Rigging totally cut to Pieces, and the major Part of our Standing Rigging; every Stay, except the Mizzen, either cut or badly wounded, and our Masts and Yards considerably damaged. In this Situation, although every Officer and Man exerted themselves to the utmost the whole Night, it was Seven in the Morning before the Ship was in tolerable Order to have renewed the Action. The Enemy, who appeared in the Morning in a close Line, seemed to have suffered very little in their Rigging, although I am certain they must have much Damage in their Hulls, at which the whole of our Fire was directed. As they did not chuse to come near us again, although they must plainly have seen our disabled State, but made the best of their Way for Flushing, and we followed them as close as we could till the 17th at Nine A. M. when they were within Three Leagues of that Port, with the Hopes of meeting with some Assistance to enable me to destroy them; but it coming on to blow hard at West, in the disabled State the Ship was in, we were forced to haul off the Shore; but although we were not able to take any of them, I trust you will think the Officers and Men whom I have the Honour to command in the Glatton, to whom I have Reason to give every Merit for their steady, gallant and cool Behaviour in the Attack, have done their utmost, and also some Good, in driving so very superior a Force into Port to refit, that might have done very considerable Damage to our Trade had they got to Sea. I cannot conclude this without recommending to your Notice, in the strongest Manner, Lieutenant Robert Williams (2d), my First Lieutenant, who gave me every Assistance in his Power on the Upper Deck; and also Lieutenant Schomberg, Second Lieutenant, and Lieutenant Pringle, Third Lieutenant, who commanded on the Lower Deck; and also Captain Strangeways, of the Marines, who, I am very sorry to acquaint you, has received a bad Wound from a Musquet Ball in his Thigh.

Thigh, which is not extracted yet, who after he had received it, and had a Tourniquet on, insisted on coming on Deck to his Quarters again, where he remained, encouraging his Men, till he was faint with the Loss of Blood, and I was under the Necessity of ordering him to be carried down again; and all the Warrant Officers and Petty Officers and Ship's Company behaved as English Sailors always do on such Occasions. And I am particularly happy in acquainting you, that I have not lost one Life in so warm an Action, and only one wounded besides Captain Strangeways, viz. William Hall, the Corporal of Marines, who also received a Musquet Ball through his Thigh Bone; the Ball passed out on the opposite Side. Our small Loss can only be attributed to their firing totally at our Rigging to disable us, in which they too well succeeded; and His Majesty's Ship Glatton being unfit to keep the Sea from the Damage she has received in her Masts, Yards and Rigging. I have thought fit, for the Good of His Majesty's Service, to come to Yarmouth-Roads to refit.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Kingsmill, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Cork, to Mr. Nepean; dated L'Engageante, Cork Harbour, July 17, 1796.

YOU will please further to inform their Lordships, that His Majesty's Sloop Hazard is just returned, and has brought in with her a French Brig Privateer, of 14 Guns and 106 Men, Le Terrible, from Brest, out Six Days but had not captured any Thing, which she fell in with Yesterday, at Three A.M. Scilly bearing S. S. E. Sixteen Leagues; but having chased her to the N. E. until Eleven o'Clock, and being unable to weather the Land's End or Scilly, it blowing hard and great Sea running, Captain Rudlach thought proper to come hither.
